THE CHINESE MAIL.

報日字號

(Woh Te Yat Po.)

THIS paper is now issued every day. The circulation is fixed at five Dollars per annum, delivered in Hongkong, at Eleven Dollars Per Cent, including postage to East ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is, of course, derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the gentry and securites necessary to place it in their interest to avail themselves of it.

The projectors, having their estimates upon the most reliable basis of the various Ports in China and Japan, from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Siam, and other places governed by the Chinese, consider the paper justified in guaranteeing a large and ever-increasing circulation.

The various advertisements offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to paper of this description is, however, by native efforts, but progressive, and anti-obstructive in tone, and limited. It is on the one hand commands Chinese belief, and interest, while on the other it deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorials, with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.

Subscription rates for the above may be sent to G. MURKIN BAIN, China Mail Office.
